JUDGMENT (Per Hon'ble Sri Justice B. Prakash Rao)

This Writ Appeal is filed by the appellants against the orders of learned Single Judge of this Court in W.P. No. 17749 of 2004, on 10.02.2005, under which the learned Single Judge has modified the order impugned therein with the observations as mentioned therein. The appellants are the respondents in the writ petition.

Heard Sri V.T. M. Prasad, the learned Standing Counsel for the appellants and also Sri V.Narasimha Goud, the learned counsel for contesting respondent.

The only question involved in this writ appeal is as to the quantum of punishment which was imposed by the learned Single Judge by disposing of the writ petition which was filed by the worker challenging the final orders of imposing punishment against him.

Considering, the submissions made by the learned counsel and also the material placed on record, the writ petition is partly allowed only to the extent of modifying the quantum of punishment which is purely discretion. Having regard to the same, we feel that such modification of punishment is not disproportionate and there is no illegality or irregularity and, therefore, we do not find any grounds in this appeal warranting any interference by this Court.

Accordingly, this writ appeal is dismissed. No costs.
